

SOME POSSIBLE IDEAS

Student Radio Students may wish to set up their own radio show or podcast, which they can share with the rest of the School.	Online Board Game Students may wish to deploy their numeracy skills to design an online virtual board game and play them with others online.	Virtual Gym Students may wish to explore different types of fitness and provide videos online to help promote well-being and healthy way of living.
Online Magazine Students may wish to deploy their literacy and entrepreneurial skills to launch a School magazine.	Virtual Building Creation Students may wish to create state of the art buildings online and use their maths to design a new award winning building.	Other – New Business Students may wish to launch their own mini businesses, which provides a unique service.
Eco-Toy Students explore environmentalism by designing their own eco-toy and presenting to a panel of judges.	New Chocolate Using numeracy and enterprise, students create a new chocolate brand.	Re-Designing Classrooms Students review an exciting new book range to promote reading and re- design classroom reading areas.